

Recently the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) and the U.S. Census Bureau selected you to participate in the 2015 Rental Housing Finance Survey (RHFS). We rely on rental property owners like you to provide information that helps inform the development of rental housing policies, especially those pertaining to financing rental housing for targeted groups such as low-income families and individuals and the elderly.

The deadline to complete the 2015 Rental Housing Finance Survey (RHFS) is nearing. Please take a few minutes to provide this information for the property listed below.

If you have recently completed the survey, thank you for your assistance and please disregard this letter. If you have not had the opportunity to participate yet, we encourage you to complete the survey online using the following information:

Your responses are confidential and protected by Title 13, United States Code, Section 9. Your answers may be used only for statistical purposes and may not be disclosed, or used, in identifiable form for any other purpose except as required by law. Your participation is voluntary, but your responses are necessary to make the results of this survey accurate and timely.

If you have any questions, please contact us, toll-free, at 1-888-595-1335. Someone will be available to take your call Monday through Friday, between 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. (Eastern Time). At any other time, please leave a message and someone will return your call promptly.

For additional information about the RHFS, please visit <https://econhelp.census.gov/rhfs>. Results from the 2012 RHFS are available at <http://www.huduser.org/portal/datasets/rhfs/home.html>.

Thank you in advance for your contribution to this important survey effort. Your response helps ensure that the Census Bureau accurately measures America's people, places, and our Economy.

Sincerely,

William G. Bostic, Jr.
Acting Chief, Economic Management Division
U.S. Census Bureau
