Section 1. Small Business Borrowers at Your Bank, in Calendar Year 2015

This section asks questions of the general characteristics of small business borrowers served by your bank, and to what extent your bank lends to small businesses. Specialized knowledge required includes your bank’s internal thresholds, if any, in defining a small business, and your bank’s general Commercial and Industrial lending activity with small businesses.

We suggest a Senior Commercial Loan Officer as the appropriate personnel to answer these questions.

This section consists mostly of Yes/No questions that a Senior Commercial Loan Officer should be able to answer within a few minutes.
SECTION 1 – Small Business Borrowers at Your Bank in Calendar Year 2015

A. Loan Originations at Your Bank

1. In your own words, please describe the general characteristics of the small business borrowers to which your bank lends, regardless of regulatory definitions for small businesses. (The purpose of this question is to compare how banks differ in what they consider to be small businesses.)

2. For calendar year 2015, do you consider largely all of the loans made by your bank for Commercial and Industrial (C&I) purposes to have been made to borrowers that you consider to be small businesses?
   - [ ] a. Yes
   - [ ] b. No

3. Generally speaking, does your bank internally consider a level of gross annual revenue, regardless of regulatory definitions for small businesses, above which a business would NOT be considered a small business?
   - [ ] a. Yes – please answer Q.3A below
   - [ ] b. No

   3A. What is the annual revenue benchmark above which a business is NOT considered a small business?
   $____________________.00

4. Generally speaking, does your bank consider an aggregate loan exposure above which the business being lent to would NOT be considered a small business?
   - [ ] a. Yes – please answer Q.4A below
   - [ ] b. No

   4A. What is this aggregate loan exposure above which a business is NOT considered a small business?
   $____________________.00

5. Does your bank offer any loan products designed specifically for small businesses? Please do NOT include government-sponsored loan programs, such as Small Business Administration loans.
   - [ ] a. Yes – please answer Q.5A below
   - [ ] b. No, our bank does not offer any products that differentiate between small businesses and all businesses.

   5A. How many such small business-specific loan products does your bank offer? __________
6. At the end of calendar year 2015, what was your bank’s “internal” (or “house”) loan exposure limit, as set by your bank’s Board of Directors? \(^3\)

$____________________.00

Please use the space below for any explanations that may help us understand your reported data in Section 1.

Please provide the contact information for the person who completed this section:

Name __________________________________________

Title __________________________________________

Telephone __________________________ Extension __________

We have your bank’s primary address listed as:

Bank Name __________________________________________

Street Address __________________________

City __________________________

State ________

Zip Code __________

\(^3\) If your bank uses different limits for different loan portfolios, please report the limit for C&I lending.
Section 2. Total Loan Originations at Your Bank, in Calendar Year 2015

This section asks one question on total origination and renewal dollars committed by your bank in 2015 to loans for all purposes. Specialized knowledge includes your bank’s core systems; for some small institutions, familiarity with physical loan ledgers may be required.

We suggest loan operations staff, working with a Senior Commercial Loan Officer, as the appropriate personnel to answer this question.

The time required for this section will depend on how long it takes your bank’s system to retrieve the information, or for the figure to be derived from physical reports. We suggest loan operations staff works with a Senior Commercial Loan Officer to ensure that all loan purposes are captured.
SECTION 2 - Total Loan Originations at Your Bank in Calendar Year 2015

7. In calendar year 2015, what were the total originations and renewal dollars committed to loans for ALL purposes, including all consumer loans and all commercial loans to businesses of all sizes? Please refer to the instruction box below, for detailed instructions on what lending to include.4

Loans for all purposes...

Include Lending Related to:

- Acquisition, Construction, and Development
- Agricultural and Farm
- Commercial and Industrial (C&I)
- Commercial Real Estate (CRE)
- Multi-family Real Estate
- 1-4 Family Residential Properties
- Consumer-activity, including (and not limited to) Auto and Credit Cards

Note:

- For renewals, include the whole amount of the renewal.
- For lines of credit, include the entire amount of the available line originated or renewed.
- Include non-portfolio loans that were originated for sale.

4 Please note that we are asking for total origination and renewal dollars for ALL PURPOSES, not only for small business lending purposes. Note also that the figures requested are NOT currently reported on the Call Report.
Section 3. Commercial and Industrial Loan Originations at Your Bank, in Calendar Year 2015

This section asks questions related to total origination and renewal dollars committed by your bank in 2015 to loans for Commercial and Industrial purposes, by collateral type and firm gross annual revenue. Specialized knowledge includes your bank’s core systems, and the types of collateral used to secure Commercial and Industrial loans.

We suggest loan operations staff, working with a Senior Commercial Loan Officer, as the appropriate personnel to answer this question.

The time required for this section will depend on your system’s ability to retrieve loans by collateral type, separately from loan purpose. You may find yourself submitting an answer and returning to this section again later. We suggest that loan operations staff works with a Senior Commercial Loan officer, who will have expert knowledge of the types of collateral accepted for Commercial and Industrial lending.

Please note that banks with assets of less than $1 billion are not asked two of the four questions.
Section 3 – Commercial and Industrial Loan Originations at Your Bank in Calendar Year 2015

[Note: Ask Q.8 only if Q.S1=Yes]

8. In Question 7, your bank provided its total originations and renewal dollars committed to loans for ALL purposes. In calendar year 2015, what were the total originations and renewal dollars committed to loans for Commercial and Industrial (C&I) purposes, only?

Please refer to the instruction box below for detailed instructions on this Survey's definition for C&I lending.\(^5\)

| For the purposes of this survey, loans for commercial and industrial purposes are loans to fund C&I activity, regardless of the collateral used to secure the loan. Specifically…

Section 4. Outstanding Loans Reported on the Call Report, for Commercial & Industrial Activity

This section asks questions related to your bank’s outstanding loans reported by collateral on the Call Report, that are actually for commercial and industrial purposes, and the gross annual revenue of firms that receive commercial and industrial loans of $1 million or less reported on the Call Report. Specialized knowledge includes your bank’s core systems, and the purposes for which loans are used, regardless of collateral.

We suggest loan operations staff, working with a Senior Commercial Loan Officer, as the appropriate personnel to answer this question.

The time required for this section will depend on your system’s ability to retrieve loans by loan purpose, separately from collateral type. We suggest that loan operations staff works with a Senior Commercial Loan Officer, who will have expert knowledge of how loan purpose might differ from collateral accepted.
Section 4 – Outstanding Loans Reported on the Call Report, for Commercial & Industrial Activity

This section asks questions specific to your bank's December 2015 Call Report data. Note: Although Section 4 is displayed here, Section 4 questions are asked only if the bank has asset sizes of $1 billion or greater.

A. Loans for Commercial & Industrial Activity, Secured by 1-4 Family Residential Properties

[Note: Ask Q.12 only if Q.S5=Yes]

Please refer to the instruction box below for examples of loans to include.

$____________________.00

Examples of loans to include:
- A line of credit to a business for working-capital purposes, secured by the primary residence of the owner
- A loan to an established small business borrower to open a new business, secured by the primary residence of the owner

B. Loans for Commercial & Industrial Activity, Secured by Nonfarm Nonresidential Properties

[Note: Ask Q.13 only if Q.S5=Yes]

13. Looking at the outstanding balances of reported on your bank's December 2015 Call Report for loans secured by owner-occupied and non-owner-occupied Nonfarm Nonresidential Properties (i.e., commercial real estate) what was the total dollar amount that would have been classified as Commercial and Industrial lending, had it not been primarily secured by commercial real estate (CRE)? Please refer to the instruction box below for examples of loans to include and details on lending to exclude.

$____________________.00

Examples of loans to include -
- A loan to a business for working capital purposes, secured by the premises of the business

Exclude:
- Lending for the purchase, refinancing, or improvement of CRE, both owner-occupied and non-owner-occupied

Section 5. Small Business Commercial and Industrial Lending Competition, Practices, and Applications at Your Bank

This section asks questions related to your bank’s practices for conducting small business lending, including market area, competition, loan products, loan applications, and underwriting. Specialized knowledge includes your bank’s on the ground practices in generating small business lending relationships at your bank.

We suggest a Commercial Loan Officer, working with a Senior Commercial Loan Officer, as the appropriate personnel to answer these questions.

This section consists mostly of multiple choice questions that an experienced Commercial Loan Officer should be able to answer in one sitting. We suggest that the Commercial Loan Officer works with a Senior Commercial Loan Officer to ensure that the answers provided reflect the entire bank, rather than the experience of just one loan officer.

   21B. In your own words, how does your bank define startups, other than by age?

16 The term ‘principal sponsor’ means that your bank is the sponsoring bank that directly handles card transactions on behalf of merchants.
17 By “threshold” we mean the acceptable level for underwriting criterion, for example, “a maximum 75 percent loan-to-value ratio.” In this example, a differing threshold could be a maximum “80 percent loan-to-value ratio” for a different C&I loan product. Another example could be requiring a minimum personal credit score of 650 for small business term loans but a minimum of 700 for a small business credit card.
18 Please note that by “startups” we mean new operations, not new owners of existing businesses.

Section 6. Information on Consumer Bank Accounts

This section asks questions related to your bank’s basic, entry-level, transaction (checking and bank-issued prepaid card) and savings accounts, focusing on opening deposit and minimum balance requirements, and fees; your bank’s general policy for handling overdrafts, and overdraft and NSF fees; your bank’s identification requirements and screening process for opening accounts.

We strongly suggest having your bank’s Head of Retail Banking directly answer these questions.

This section consists mostly of Yes/No or multiple choice questions that a Head of Retail Banking should be able to answer in one sitting.
Section 6 - Information about Consumer Bank Accounts

The purpose of this section is to gather information on identification and other account opening requirements and transaction costs related to entry-level consumer transaction accounts at banks. This data is responsive to a Congressional mandate that the FDIC learn about efforts by insured depository institutions to bring consumers who have rarely, if ever, held a checking account, a savings account, or other type of transaction account at an insured depository institution into the conventional finance system.

In this section, we ask questions related to your bank’s basic entry-level transaction and savings accounts. In your answers, please:
- INCLUDE only products and services available to the general public;
- EXCLUDE products limited to specific consumer segments such as products for students.
